

An orchestra is a group of musicians who play musical instruments together.

The conductor leads the group.

He (or she) holds and moves a special stick, called baton, to maintain a steady rhythm.

Source:
pexels.com

Source:
Canva

Source:
Canva